Texas Eastern

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

CRAIG CUNNINGHAM, Plaintiff, v. DR. Finance, LLC, Teliamarie Lamb, Defendant	§ § § § § Civil Case No. 4:18-cv-00565-ALM- CAN § § § §

Plaintiff's Amended Complaint

Parties

1. The Plaintiff is Craig Cunningham and natural person and was present in Texas for all calls in this case in Collin County.
2. Teliamarie Lamb is a natural person and can be served at 1850 Valley Forge Dr., Saint Cloud, FL 34769 or 8031 Lesia Cir., Orlando, FL 32835 or 2897 Polvadero Ln., Unit 107, Orlando, FL 32835.
3. DR. Finance, LLC is a Florida corporation that can be served via registered agent Teliamarie Lamb 1850 Valley Forge Dr., Saint Cloud, FL 34769.
4. John/Jane Does 1-4 are other liable parties currently unknown to the Plaintiff.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. Jurisdiction. This Court has federal-question subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's TCPA claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because the TCPA is a federal statute. Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 565 U.S. 368, 372 (2012). This Court has supplemental subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claim arising under Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053 because that claim: arises from the same nucleus of operative fact, i.e., Defendants' telemarketing robocalls to Plaintiff; adds little complexity to the case; and doesn't seek money damages, so it is unlikely to predominate over the TCPA claims.

6. Personal Jurisdiction. This Court has general personal jurisdiction over the defendant because they have repeatedly placed calls to Texas residents, and derive revenue from Texas residents, and the sell goods and services to Texas residents, including the Plaintiff.
7. This Court has specific personal jurisdiction over the defendants because the calls at issue were sent by or on behalf of Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC.
8. Venue. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1)-(2) because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims—the calls and sale of goods and services directed at Texas residents, including the Plaintiff—occurred in this District and because the Plaintiff resides in this District. residing in the Eastern District of Texas when he recieved a substantial if not every single call from the Defendants that are the subject matter of this lawsuit.
9. This Court has venue over the defendants because the calls at issue were sent by or on behalf of the above named defendants to the Plaintiff a Texas resident.

THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT OF 1991, 47 U.S.C. §

10. In 1991, Congress enacted the TCPA in response to a growing number of consumer complaints regarding telemarketing.

11. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice ... to any telephone number assigned to a ... cellular telephone service.” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).
12. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to initiate any telephone call to any residential telephone line using an artificial or prerecorded voice to deliver a message without the prior express consent of the called party, unless the call is initiated for emergency purposes, is made solely pursuant to the collection of a debt owed to or guaranteed by the United States, or is exempted by rule or order” of the Federal Communication Commission (“FCC”). 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(B).
13. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(b). 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).
14. Separately, the TCPA bans making telemarketing calls without a do-not-call policy available upon demand. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(1).¹
15. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(c) or a regulation promulgated thereunder. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).
16. According to findings of the FCC, the agency vested by Congress with authority to issue regulations implementing the TCPA, automated or prerecorded telephone calls are a greater nuisance and invasion of privacy than live solicitation calls and can be costly and inconvenient.
17. The FCC also recognizes that “wireless customers are charged for incoming calls whether they pay in advance or after the minutes are used.” In re Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 18 FCC Rcd. 14014, 14115 ¶ 165 (2003).

18. The FCC requires “prior express written consent” for all autodialed or prerecorded telemarketing robocalls to wireless numbers and residential lines. In particular:[A] consumer’s written consent to receive telemarketing robocalls must be signed and be sufficient to show that the consumer: (1) received clear and conspicuous disclosure of the consequences of providing the requested consent, i.e., that the consumer will receive future calls that deliver prerecorded messages by or on behalf of a specific seller; and (2) having received this information, agrees unambiguously to receive such calls at a telephone number the consumer designates. In addition, the written agreement must be obtained without requiring, directly or indirectly, that the agreement be executed as a condition of purchasing any good or service.
19. In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 27 FCC Rcd. 1830, 1844 ¶ 33 (2012) (footnote and internal quotation marks omitted). FCC regulations “generally establish that the party on whose behalf a solicitation is made bears ultimate responsibility for any violations.” In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 10 FCC Rcd. 12391, 12397 ¶ 13 (1995).
20. The FCC confirmed this principle in 2013, when it explained that “a seller ... may be held vicariously liable under federal common law principles of agency for violations of either section 227(b) or section 227(c) that are committed by third-party telemarketers.” In the Matter of the Joint Petition Filed by Dish Network, LLC, 28

FCC Rcd. 6574, 6574 ¶ 1 (2013).

21. Under the TCPA, a text message is a call. Satterfield v. Simon & Schuster, Inc., 569 F.3d 946, 951 – 52 (9th Cir. 2009).
22. A corporate officer involved in the telemarketing at issue may be personally liable under the TCPA. E.g., Jackson Five Star Catering, Inc. v. Beason, Case No. 10-10010, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 159985, at *10 (E.D. Mich. Nov. 8, 2013) (“[M]any courts have held that corporate actors can be individually liable for violating the TCPA where they had direct, personal participation in or personally authorized the conduct found to have violated the statute.” (internal quotation marks omitted)); Maryland v. Universal Elections, 787 F. Supp. 2d 408, 415 – 16 (D. Md. 2011) (“If an individual acting on behalf of a corporation could avoid individual liability, the TCPA would lose much of its force.”).

The Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053

23. The Texas Business and Commerce code has an analogous portion that is related to the TCPA and was violated in this case.
24. The Plaintiff may seek damages under this Texas law for violations of 47 USC 227 or subchapter A and seek $500 in statutory damages or $1500 for willful or knowing damages.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

25. Rachel with Card Services is the bane of the existence of many consumers. These are calls long since prosecuted by the FTC that make fraudulent, misleading, false promises and exaggerated claims to consumers. These scams have taken place for years and continue to this day. Jeff Lakes is the ring leader of one of these scam operations and has directed this scam to continue in the face of consumer complaints for years.

Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC calls to the Plaintiff

26. Mr. Cunningham received multiple calls from a variety of spoofed caller ID's that contained a pre-recorded message and were initiated using an automated telephone dialing system. The calls were on behalf of Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC.. The calls had a delay of 3-4 seconds of dead air before the pre-recorded message began indicating the calls were initiated using an ATDS. The Plaintiff recieved calls directly from the corporations owned by Teliamarie Lamb and on behalf of these corporations by 3rd party telemarketers for both direct and vicarious liability in this case.
27. Starting in 2018, the Plaintiff recieved multiple calls from multiple spoofed and non-working caller ID's all designed to trick consumers into picking up the phone by using false, misleading, and fraudulent caller ID's. These calls were not related to an emergency purpose or any
28. One call was from 615-550-8333 to 615-348-1977 on 11/12/2018 and contained a pre-recorded message and was initiated by an automated telephone dialing as indicated by a 3-4 second delay of dead air when the call first connected. The defendants called a total of 10 times on 11/12/2018, 3 times on 11/13/2018 and once on 11/15/201 from 866-576-9211.
29. The 8333 number is a non-working number and was picked specifically because it is very similar to the Plaintiff's actual phone number of 7262 and is called "Neighborhood spoofing" designed to trick consumers into picking up the call as it appears to be a local call. This call contained a pre-recorded message after a 3-4 second pause of dead air. Upon further conversation with the representative who had a thick foreign accent and sounded as if he was calling from overseas, the Plaintiff was transferred live to a “verification” rep and then finally to an agent who stated he was with Ramsey Debt relief.

30. Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC knew full well that overseas telemarketers were placing calls on their behalf to consumers across the country pitching debt relief services by Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC which was initiated using an automated telephone dialing system and contained a pre-recorded message.

31. Mr. Cunningham has a limited data plan. Incoming text messages chip away at his monthly allotment.

32. Mr. Cunningham has limited data storage capacity on his cellular telephone.

Incoming calls from Jeff Lakes and his related entities consumed part of this capacity.

33. No emergency necessitated the calls

34. Each call was sent by an ATDS.

Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC’s Knowing and Willful Violations of Telemarketing Regulations

35. Mr. Cunningham asked for an internal do-not-call policy

36. Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC knowingly violated the TCPA by initiating automated calls with pre-recorded messages to the Plaintiff.

37. Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC never sent Mr. Cunningham any do-not-call policy.

38. On information and belief, Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC and did not have a written do-not-call policy while it was sending Mr. Cunningham text messages.

39. On information and belief, Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC did not train its agents engaged in telemarketing on the existence and use of any do-not-call list.

40. Teliamarie Lamb and DR. Finance, LLC calls did not provide Mr. Cunningham with the name of the individual caller or the name of the person or entity on whose behalf the call was being made.

Teliamarie Lamb and Control over DR. Finance, LLC Including its Illegal Robocalling and Telemarketing

41. At all times relevant to the claims alleged herein, Teliamarie Lamb was the sole corporate officer and executive in charge of DR. Finance, LLC.. Each and every call was placed on behalf of the corporate entites owned by Jeff Lakes. Jeff Lakes co-mingles funds and uses these entities as alter egos of each other.

42. Teliamarie Lamb is DR. Finance, LLC's, incorporator, registered agent and corporate officer.

43. Teliamarie Lamb was aware that DR. Finance, LLC, was sending automated, telemarketing calls en masse to people, including Plaintiff, and had recieved previous complaints about these types of calls

44. As DR. Finance, LLC's senior-most executive, Teliamarie Lamb had the power to stop these spam campaigns.

45. As DR. Finance, LLC's , senior-most executive, Teliamarie Lamb had the power to fire the managers and employees taking part of the day-to-day operations of these illegal robocalling operations. Despite being sued by the Plaintiff for illegal telemarketing, Teliamarie Lamb continued to use the services of the exact same telemarketers, which resulted in the Plaintiff being called additional times on his behalf and at his direction.

46. Instead, Teliamarie Lamb allowed the calls to continue and the responsible managers to keep their jobs—despite his knowledge of frequent do-not-call complaints from recipients of these messages, including the Plaintiff.

The Plaintiff's cell phone is a residential number

47. The text messages were to the Plaintiff's cellular phone 615-348-1977, which is the Plaintiff's personal cell phone that he uses for personal, family, and household use. The Plaintiff maintains no landline phones at his residence and has not done so for at least 10 years and primarily relies on cellular phones to communicate with friends and family. The Plaintiff also uses his cell phone for navigation purposes, sending and receiving emails, timing food when cooking, and sending and receiving text messages. The Plaintiff further has his cell phone registered in his personal name, pays the cell phone from his personal accounts, and the phone is not primarily used for any business purpose.

Violations of the Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053

48. The actions of Teliamarie Lamb and her corporation violated the Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053 by placing automated calls to a cell phone which violate 47 USC 227(b). The calls by Teliamarie Lamb and her corporation violated Texas law by placing calls with a pre-recorded message to a cell phone which violate 47 USC 227(c)(5) and 47 USC 227(d) and 47 USC 227(d)(3) and 47 USC 227(e).
49. The calls by Teliamarie Lamb violated Texas law by spoofing the caller ID's per 47

USC 227(e) which in turn violates the Texas statute.

I. FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Non-Emergency Robocalls to Cellular Telephones, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A))
(Against All Defendants)

1. Mr. Cunningham realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

2. The foregoing acts and omissions of Defendants and/or their affiliates or agents constitute multiple violations of the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A), by making non-emergency telemarketing robocalls to Mr. Cunningham's cellular telephone number without his prior express written consent.

3. Mr. Cunningham is entitled to an award of at least $500 in damages for each such violation. 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B).

4. Mr. Cunningham is entitled to an award of up to $1,500 in damages for each such knowing or willful violation. 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

5. Mr. Cunningham also seeks a permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants and their affiliates and agents from making non-emergency telemarketing robocalls to cellular telephone numbers without the prior express written consent of the called party.

II. SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Telemarketing Without Mandated Safeguards, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d))

(Against All Defendants)

6. Mr. Cunningham realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

7. The foregoing acts and omissions of Defendants and/or their affiliates or agents constitute multiple violations of FCC regulations by making telemarketing solicitations despite lacking:

a. a written policy, available upon demand, for maintaining a do-not-call list, in violation of 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(1);²

b. training for the individuals involved in the telemarketing on the existence of and use of a do-not-call list, in violation of 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(2);³ and,

c. in the solicitations, the name of the individual caller and the name of the person or entity on whose behalf the call is being made, in violation of 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(4).⁴

8. Mr. Cunningham is entitled to an award of at least $500 in damages for each such violation. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5)(B).

9. Mr. Cunningham is entitled to an award of up to $1,500 in damages for each such knowing or willful violation. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

² See id. at 425 (codifying a June 26, 2003 FCC order).

³ See id. at 425 (codifying a June 26, 2003 FCC order).

⁴ See id. at 425 – 26 (codifying a June 26, 2003 FCC order).

10. Mr. Cunningham also seeks a permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants and their affiliates and agents from making telemarketing solicitations until and unless they (1) implement a do-not-call list and training thereon and (2) include the name of the individual caller and AFS's name in the solicitations.

III. THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF: Violations of The Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053

11. Mr. Cunningham realleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

12. The foregoing acts and omissions of Defendants and/or their affiliates or agents constitute multiple violations of the Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053, by making non-emergency telemarketing robocalls to Mr. Cunningham's cellular telephone number without his prior express written consent in violation of 47 USC 227 et seq. The Defendants violated 47 USC 227(d) and 47 USC 227(d)(3) and 47 USC 227(e) by using an ATDS that does not comply with the technical and procedural standards under this subsection.

13. Mr. Cunningham is entitled to an award of at least $500 in damages for each such violation. Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053(b)

14. Mr. Cunningham is entitled to an award of up to $1,500 in damages for each such knowing or willful violation. Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053(c).
